THE RALEIGH NEWS

VOL. XIV--NO. 107. RALEIGH, N. C. TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 7, 1879. $5.00 PER ANNUM.

Yes, we do not deny the soft impeachment. The News would be gratified to renew its contract with the State for its printing at the reduced rates proposed. Not as a matter of gain, for certainly the margin for profit is small. But to prove its faith in the people's reform movement by its works. Who would not be proud of such a record?

CONVERSATION with members of the Legislature discovers a general recognition that retrenchment will be the real issue of the session, and a pronounced ambition to make it efficient enough to at least satisfy somewhat the demands of the people. The healthy reform purpose of our legislators will be strengthened and directed by the bracing utterances of the Governor's message. The News will be found zealous and diligent in its co-operation.

THE acceptability of Senator Merrimon's service in the United States Senate has been the theme of much laudatory comment. That he has failed to impress his greatness upon the nation is evidenced by the disinterested newspaper criticisms at the National Capital. That he has failed to make his re-election a desideratum in the weal of North Carolina will be amply demonstrated on the 21st of the month. The hour and the man did not meet in Mr. Merrimon: The hour was inauspicious and the man was suspicious. "It was ever thus," &c.

WE thank the Salisbury Watchman for these kind words. They are truly, at this time, (while taunted with poverty and bankruptcy by a patented, subsidized newspaper) "apples of gold in pictures of silver: The News did the State printing by appointment of the Legislature two years ago, and so far as we know did it satisfactorily, and thus earned a claim for re-election. It now offers to do much of the work at half the rates fixed by law. This, it is claimed, can be done in consideration of the reduced prices of labor, material, &c. It is certainly a very heavy deduction, and narrows the margin for profits to a close shave.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The coldest weather since the winter of 1857.

Judge Kerr has been very sick, and is till confined to his bed.

The Mayor of Charlotte fell on the ce and got badly hurt.

The Salisbury News gives it up. Its publication ceases with the new year.

The friends of Hon. F. E. Shober are cheered by hopes of his speedy recovery.

The Randolph Sun has set to rise no more, "but it goes down in hues of golden light."

Twenty one children have died of diptheria in one neighborhood in M tchell county in the last month.

At the rate of thirty feet per week the week on the Swannannoa tunnel (Western North Carolina Railroad) will be completed in five weeks.

Burke Blade: Major S. W. Cole, of Salisbury, has given Rutherford College $900, with which to finish the college building. We are exceedingly gratified to chronicle this instance of christian liberality and far-sighted public spirit.

The report made by Messrs. Thigpen and Grant, in favor of a stock law, the Charlotte Observer pronounces unanswerable, and remarks: We already have the law unchangeably established here and general legislation on the subject cannot affect us except indirectly, as it affects our neighbors; but ourselves being in possession of a good thing we would be glad to have our neighbors participate in the same benefits that we enjoy. For this reason we should be glad to see the Legislature adopt a general law, embracing all of the counties of the State except, perhaps, those west of the ridge, where it would probably not be acceptable, from causes which can be readily understood.

The Blade encourages the movement now on foot in Burke county looking to the abolition of the Homestead law. For the purpose of ascertaining and measuring public sentiment in the premises, a county meeting will be held in Morganton next week. The Blade says: A great many men are coming to the conclusion that while good credit is the only capital in stock for a poor man it injures him for the government to hold a Homestead law over his head, and thus deprive him of the benefits of the little confidence that his neighbor might have in him. We believe it would be decidedly better for the country to limit the Homestead if not abolish it altogether. The object of the law was to shield the citizens of the State from the losses resulting from the war. In this the law is a failure.—Would it not be better to have it understood in the future, if a man contracts a debt he is expected to pay it?

The Bingham School catalogues 142 students. Nearly every Southern State, and among the foreign countries, Asia, is represented. Its claims to patronage are thus classified:

(a) the oldest school in the South; (b) our numbers at present are larger than those of any similar school in the South; (c) we command higher tuition fees than any other institution of learning, of any grade, in the South, for males ($150 per year before the war and up to 1867; $125 at present); (d) those who complete our regular course with first distinction, and whose character we can endorse, command higher pay as teachers (from $400 to $800 and board per year) than the pupils of any other school in the South; (e) we make more liberal offers to young men with limited means than any other school in the United States; (f) the area from which our patronage is drawn exceeds that of any other school in the South, extending as it does from Virginia, Kentucky and Wisconsin on the North to Florida and Texas on the South, and Asia is also represented."

Not since the time Edward Everett delivered his celebrated address in Wilmington on "Washington" (1858) has such a crowd assembled as greeted Hon. Geo. Davis in Wilmington Saturday night. His theme was an "Episode in the early history of the Cape Fear." The Review says:

Despite the intensity of the cold, the seats were filled by a large and fashionable audience. Youth and beauty were there to listen to his words of wisdom and drink in inspiration from his fervid eloquence. Decrepid age and vigorous manhood sat in rapt attention while the gifted orator, in thoughts that breathed and words that burned, swayed them at his will. It was indeed an intellectual treat of the highest order, and as a citizen of Wilmington, and identified with her interests, we thank him for the lustre he has shed upon our annals, but a "native and to the manner born," we are prouder than we have been before—if that were possible—of our own Cape Fear boy, of whom it can truthfully be said, Nil tetiget quod non ornavit.

New York City--The New Board of Aldermen.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The Board of Aldermen for 1879 organized to-day, choosing Jordan L. Mott, President, who received 12 votes, anti-Tommany and Republican, to 6 for Wm. R. Roberts, Tammany, Mayor Cooper's inaugural message was sent to the Aldermen to-day. He urges that the burdens imposed upon New York's commerce in the way of tolls, charges or exactions, be lightened, and that the harbor facilities and dock and wharf accommodations be extended and adapted to modern cheap methods of handling bulky products. He advises a reduction in the number of city officials, and equalization of salaries. He thinks the expenses of Courts of Justice are too heavy. He asks for a modified exercise law and recommends taxation upon all corporations enjoying special privileges and franchises, and insists upon the efficient economical and enlighted administration of public business.

A Plucky Woman--Brooklyn's Debt.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—At noon to-day Madame Anderson finished her 1,985th quarter mile in 5 minutes 45 seconds. Her next quarter was made in 5 minutes 49 seconds. She completes her 2,000th quarter mile this afternoon, having but 700 more to walk.

Mayor Howell, of Brooklyn, in his annual message, sent to the Board of Aldermen this afternoon, says that the city debt amounts to $37,475,318, an increase within the year of $1,235,566. He hopes that the East River bridge, which has cost Brooklyn so much, will yield a revenue to redeem this debt. The temporary debt is $9,700,000. He recommended a resort to the legislature for an act that will enforce the speedy completion of the bridge.

Distress in England.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The weather is again cold and frosty. There has been a daily increase of popular distress in every quarter during the past week. During the week twelve hundred families have been relieved in Wolverhampton. A considerable increase of distress is also reported from Sheffield.

Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5th.—Should the weather moderate Senator Thurman will leave here to-morrow night to attend the Democratic celebration at Columbus, Ohio, on the Eighth Justant. The theme assigned to him for speech is. "The Jackson Democracy," and to this subject he says he would devote his remarks without discussing the financial question. He will also give reasons why he does not desire his name to be used as a candidate for the Governorship Ohio.

There will be a public commemoration in honor late Professor Joseph Henry, in the hall of the House of Representatives on the evening of 16th. instant.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The Treasury to-day issued the seventy-eighth call for redemption of 5-20 bonds of 1865. Amount called for ten millions.

Secretary Sherman has returned and resumed his official duties.

Senator Thurman this afternoon addressed a letter to the Columbus, Ohio banquet committee, saying it will not be in his power to attend the Democratic celebration on the 8th inst., as he is just beginning to recover from a severe cold and cannot but recognize the fact that it would be imprudent for him in such extremely cold weather to make a trip requiring eight hundred miles travel and twice crossing the mountains. He offers a few reflections upon the toast, "The Jackson Democracy," the theme upon which he was appointed to speak, and confines himself solely to that subject.

A decision was rendered to-day on the United States Supreme Court in the case of A. T. Stewart & Co., appellants against Meyer Souneborn instituted a civil suit for damages in the United States Circuit Court for the District of Alabama, on the ground that Stewart & Co., had maliciously forced him into bankruptcy without probable cause. A judgment was rendered in his favor, for $20,000. This court now reverses that judgment, on the ground of error in the charged to jury in the court below, and remands the case for a new trial. The Supreme Court this afternoon rendered a decision in the case of the United States versus the Union Pacific railroad Co., and others, commonly known as the Credit Mobiler Case. The decision of the lower court, sustaining the demurrer to the bill in equity, is affirmed, and the government's suit is therefore ordered to be dismissed.

The French Elections.

By Cable to the News.

PARIS, Jan. 6.—The morning papers, commenting on the Senatorial elections yesterday, agree that the result is a crushing blow, for the Bonapartists' majority in the Senate now consists of moderate Republicans, and it is considered probable that the Dufaure Cabinet will remain in office.

The Senator.

Concord Register.

We have felt ever since reconstruction, that North Carolina needs Zebulon B. Vance in the United States Senate. Our present Senators are able men, the Hon. Matt Ransom is one of the grandest types of magnificent Statesmen that the State has ever produced; and Senator Merrimon is a statesman of the highest order, but neither of them entirely fills the bill to make our senatorial representation "first class." They are able and profound, but—particularly Merrimon—prosy. We need the short, magnificent, glistening flashes of Vance's puncture and unanswerable retort, in the Senate, to bring down the bombast of Blaine, Edmunds and Conkling. The people of North Carolina expect the Legislature to elect Governor Vance United States Senator, and the Legislature will do well to note the wishes of their constituents, and elect him.

A Slumber Song.

BY CELIA THAXTER.

Thou little child, with tender, clinging arms,
Drop thy sweet head, my darling, down and rest
Upon my shoulder; rest with all thy charms;
Be soothed and comforted, be loved and blest.

Against thy silken, honey-colored hair
I lean a loving cheek, a mild caress;
Close, close I gather thee, and kiss thy fair
White eyelids, sleep so softly doth oppress.

Dear little face, that lie in calm content
Within the gracious hollow that God made
In every human shoulder, where he meant
Some tired head for comfort shonld be laid!

Most like a heavy-folded rose thou art
In summer air reposing, warm and still.
Dream thy sweet dreams upon my quiet heart;
I watch thy slumber—naught shall do thee ill.

To Revive Frosted Plants.

Plants are often frosted through neglect and allowed to die through ignorance. Those that have been quite severely nipped may be saved if treated rightly. The proper way is, when the frost has been partially drawn out of them, naturally, to drench them with cold water from a fine-nosed watering pot, and immediately cover again and let them so remain until they regain their natural color. When they are removed clip off all such parts as are blackened. As soon as it is discovered that a plant has been touched by frost, remove it to a cool, dark room, and on no account suffer the sun to shine on it. If they can be covered so as to exclude air as well as light it is better still. Dahlias, callas and the like need not be removed until the frosts are severe enough to blacken the leaves.

The State Debt.

Correspondence of the News.

Much concern is manifested now about the debt of North Carolina, both by the creditors and the people of our glorious old commonwealth. The time for the meeting of the General Assembly approaches very rapidly. In a few days the members will have assembled at the Capital. What then can be done? We hear the cry coming up constantly, the Legislature, at its ensuing session, must do something to settle the State debt and save us from disgrace, and some go even so far as to say, from ruin and the greatest of calamities. There is no good citizen who does not desire to see the State's indebtedness paid. There is no good citizen who does not desire to see the citizens of the State pay up also their private indebtedness. The legal and moral obligation is just as binding to do the one as to do the other, and we think the consequences of failing to do the one as the other. But while many say this Legislature must attend to this matter of the public debt, where is the man who can suggest the plan? We imagine it is just about as easy to suggest the plan for our people to adopt ways in order to pay their private debts. O! if that plan can be suggested, what a thrill of joy it would give about this time to thousands of our poor debtors whose homesteads are threatened by no one but just creditors. Let some one suggest not only the plan, but the means with which to carry it out. There are, we are satisfied, thousands of these poor debtors who are anxious to pay their poor creditors, for we are all poor now; but how are they to do it? they anxiously inquire. So it is we think in reference to the State's debt. How can the Legislature manage to settle this debt? Where can the means be found? These questions are more easily asked than answered. Let us take a slight glance at the difficulties:

In one of ex-Gov. Ellis's last messages to the Legislature before the commencement of our late civil war, he stated that the State debt was, in round numbers, ten millions of dollars. That the taxes collected during the year, for the State, were 750 thousand dollars, and that that amount of taxes was sufficient to pay the interest on the public debt, and to pay the expenses of the State government. No interest has been paid by the State since, but interest has been constantly accumulating. During the war bonds were issued under acts of the Legislature of 1860-'61, we believe, for [illegible] amounts, thus increasing the [illegible] We are not now able to state accurately what the old debt amounts to, but we suppose, interest and all, it foots up somewhere in the neighborhood of 30 millions of dollars—rather over than under. Put it down at 30 millions to be provided for. We know of course that the whole debt of the State is much larger. How will our anxious friends work out the problem, and suggest to our Legislative friends a plan to settle it and save the State and the people from disaster? It is needless to begin until you have a plan upon which you can work up the salvation of the State and the people. It won't do to talk about repudiation. That is iniquitous and dishonest. Well, do you think that our people in North Carolina can stand even one million and eight hundred thousand dollars added to their present burdens of taxes, State and general government, to pay annually the interest on even the 30 millions of debt? What do you think of the proposition, gentlemen of the Legislature? Can you stand it? If you can, do it. If you think the people can stand it without ruin and disaster, you ought to do it. Don't stop and stand and wait to inquire whether it will be popular. The statesman's duty is to determine what ought to be done, and when that is settled then do what ever is right, and trust himself in the hands of an honest constituency to approve the right.

If you, gentlemen of the Legislature, shall come to the conclusion that the people can not stand the amount of taxes that it will take to pay interest on the whole debt, whatever it may be, then see if there is any common ground between the creditor and debtor upon which both can stand, and compromise upon this by issuing new bonds and let the tax for the regular payment of interest be levied. March square up to it. Occupy no half-way ground. Either do or say we cannot do it now. Don't undertake any of your repudiation resolutions. That is nothing but humbuggery and demagogueism. Nothing of that sort is binding on your successors. If you think the people are unable to do so now, let the next Legislature take its responsibility on the subject.

It may, perhaps, be well to glance very briefly at the situation of our people, and the circumstances that surround them at present, in order to ascertain or determine whether it is practicable for the Legislature to do any thing now for the accomplishment of the great purpose of relieving the State from her present depressed, shall we say oppressed, condition? Let us take a bird's eye view, and let no one mock at us and cry out, in advance, demagogueism. No one would realize more pleasure in contemplating the situation more favorably than we expect to present it. We must look facts in the face. A wise man seeth the danger ahead and provideth against it. Our population in the State is about one million. The valuation of the entire property of the State is perhaps really a little more than one hundred dollars per head. The Legislature must necessarily levy taxes sufficient for the support of the State government, and allow a sufficient margin within the limitations of the Constitution for levying taxes to support the county governments. The government must be cut, as Judge Bynum has recently said from the Supreme Court Bench, according to the cloth, but is nevertheless must be cut. You may say the salaries and fees of the officers must be cut down. Well, cut them down but we say take care not to bleed the patient to death. You must have offices. Well, the necessary taxes must come.

Again, the Government of the United States must have money in the way of taxes to support it, and pay the bondholders, bloated or not bloated, and support the enormous and intolerable National Bank system, to gratify Mr. Hewitt of New York, and others, or they'll burst up the Democratic party. When all this is done, where is any margin left within the limitations of the industrial products of North Carolina to levy taxes on our people to pay interest now on the public debt of North Carolina? If the gentlemen of the Legislature can see it we confess we see it, if at all, through a glass very dimly. We regret the glowing situation. But can we shut our eyes to it? Is it wisdom to do it? It is very mild, very pretty, to sit off and look on, and cry it must be done. We wish heartily it were practicable to provide now and at once for the permanent settlement of the public debt, but we confess we do not see how we can do it until the creditors lower their figures. How are we to approach them? That is the question. For several successive sessions of the Legislature our people have tried to approach them, but about all we hear from them is, the Legislature must provide some means to pay the debt. And the next you hear some [illegible] in the State cries out—it must be done. The State's credit and its honor must be preserved. How? Will some one tell us?

WINSTON, Jan. 3rd, 1879.

Christmas was the most quiet and dull ever witnessed here, we presume. Snow, rain and sleet rendered every amusement next to impossible for several days, during the holidays. A solid freeze soon after Christmas incited every man from the fireside to the icepond and soon every ice house was filled with ice. To day, (Friday), is incomparably the coldest day we have had. Santa Claus made his annual visit and all the children are happy.

Five new merchants open out in our town with the new year. The usual impressive services were held in the Moravian Church in Salem, and a Bible reading, temperance lecture and watch meeting in the No. 3 Church in Winston, came off New Year's eve.

Last night the "Good Templar Amateur Dramatic Troupe" rendered "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" in Tise's Hall, and concluded with the temperance drama, "Aunt Dinah's Pledge." Both were splendidly performed, all the actors having acquitted themselves finely, and a part merited the highest praise. The inimitable Jack Johnson as Sample Switchell, in the former, and Dinah Freeman in the latter, kept the audience in convulsions of laughter. He personated Dinah so naturally that if present she would have forfeited her title. So also did Phil. Ramey get off "Edgar Freeman" better than a real doctor could have done it himself.

Mr. J. Q. V. Bushamer personated "Joe Morgan the Inebriate," as perfectly as Joe himself. I do not know what they realized.

Female Freemasons.

N. Y. Times.

[illegible] of the Atlantic coast members of [illegible] the largest and most powerful [illegible] society in existence are discussing the question whether or not a woman was ever made a Mason. There does not seem to be a great difference of opinion on the subject, for only those who are best acquainted with Masonic lore dare to speak at all knowingly concerning a mystery which very few have ever been able to explain. It seems to be pretty generally assumed that by no possibility could such an event ever have taken place.

In the earlier days of Masonry, as shown by some ancient manuscripts, there were "Dame Masons" as well as "Master Masons." The "Apprentice" is charged in one manuscript that he "shall not steal or pick away his master's or dame's goods," and in another manuscript that "he shall not disclose his master's or dame's counsel or secrets," whence it may be referred that at one time the widows of Masons were permitted to carry on work under the guild, and in that case the apprentice would serve out his time. "It may be," adds the editor of the work on Masonic history to which we are indebted for this information, "that this rule was even enlarged so as to admit the widows and daughters of Masons," a supposition which may well suggest missgivings about the secrets imparted to those who know anything about the order.

A Thrilling Story.

Wilmington Sun.

Yesterday morning as two ladies were preparing their toilet an accident, of perhaps a serious nature, occurred. The elder lady was sitting with a large cat at her feet. Suddenly, without warning, the animal seized upon one of the lower extremities of the lady and tore the flesh with its teeth and claws. Before the younger lady, her daughter, could come to her assistance the wounds inflicted by the cat were many and painful. The young lady bided not a moment, but took hold of the little enraged beast and pulled it quickly away. The cat, infuriated to tigerish anger, sprang at her, its tail swollen as large as a human arm, and scratched her hand and other parts of her person, besides badly tearing her dress. A neighboring gentleman was appealed to for help, and by the aid of the young lady's tight grip on the cat's neck and a dumb bell in the hands of the gentleman, the furious feline was killed. A physician was called upon to dress the wounds of the elder lady, who is afflicted with erysipelas in the lacerated limb, and whose safety is a matter of anxiety

Putting Fish in our Streams.

Piedmont Press.

The fish busines at Henry, under the management of Worth and Huske, is moving up lively. During last and this week 25,000 young Cal Salmon were put in Deep river at Jamestown, for the Cape Fear river; 30,000 in the Mountain streams of Dan river; 30,000 in the Green river, in Henderson county on the Spartanburg and Asheville Railroad. There are now 60,000 young trout ova hatching which will be put in the hill country streams. The operations at this winter hatchery have proven highly successful this season. In a few years our streams will all be well stocked with the very best fish and our people will look back with much pride upon the wise legislation of the last General Assembly in providing for the fish interest in connection with the Agricultural Department.

The Lewes-Eliot Alliance.

From the New York Times.

Since the death of George Henry Lewes many of the newspapers have been clumsily discussing his relation to George Eliot, whose genius and literary labors have entirely overshadowed his fame and his works, deserving as they are. The press generally speaks of her as his wife, which she was, spiritually, though not legally, owing to circumstances that could not be controlled. The wife of the author eloped from him many years ago; but, having repented of her folly, and wishing to return to him, he very generously restored her to his heart and home. She proved to be incurably inconstant. She left him a second time, and he sorn after met George Eliot, between whom and himself sprang up a strong friendship, based upon perfect mental sympathy and community of taste. They would have married, but they could not do so, inasmuch as having once condoned his wife's offence, the laws of Great Britain were not capable of granting him a divorce. He could not marry again until his late wife's death, and she, unfortunately, showed ever symptom of longevity. Such conditions naturally produced a dilemma. After long deliberation and consultation with common friends, among them some of the best minds in Europe, they decided to live under the same roof, disregarding conventionality for the sake of mutual assistance and mental growth, a course in which their friends, it is said, fully sustained them. George Eliot has been called and known for years as Mrs. Lewes, and will so continue to be called and known, albeit the former wife still lives, and bids fair to survive the gifted novelist, who is nearly sixty, and has long been in very delicate health.

It Might Have Been.

When taking a retrospection of our past lives, how often does conscience whisper to broken spirits and wounded hearts the sad, sad words. "It might have been?" Thus it may be with the sufferer who endures the agonies of hemorrhoids, or piles, and heeds not the counsel to try Barham's Infallible Pile Cure, which is warranted to speedily and permanently cure this distressing disease. Unheard of Bargains!

AT THE INDEFATIGABLE ENDEAVORS TO PLEASE THE PUBLIC. SO HERE GOES.

Ye muses nine, inspire my pen,
To sing of Fayetteville street, No 10,
who tries his best to please his friends
And in his labors never ends.
Bargains he'll give you when you call
For No. 10 is all and all.
Of other houses you hear them talk;
In Fayetteville street just take a walk,
And only ask for No. 10,
Kept by the most ingenious of men,
And when his friends by chance drop in
Then forth he comes, Lord what a grin,
And to their wondering eyes displays
Such heaps of brackets and window shades.
His pictures are exposed to public view
And a variety of cord to suspend them too,
His looking glasses and toilet cases
Will help adornyour forms and faces;
Picture frames and mouldings too
In great variety, black, brown and blue.
His window cornices and lambrequins fine,
will make your rooms and parlor shine.
Perforated mottoes, and white holly baskets.
And every other sort of stuff,
Of which he hopes to have enough.
So now he bids your all adieu
And wishes a happy new year too.
And not forget
C. C. Clawson,

DAILY NEWS

TUESDAY, ... JANUARY, 6, 1879

ORGAN OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

The News Building, No. 6. Martin Street

THE old-man-afraid-of-the-Senate is sloshing around promiscuously.

THE chairmanship of the Finance committee will indicate the leadership of the House.

PROMPT and wise committee appointments will tax the best ability of him who is so unfortunate as to hold the gavel.

IN the dark all cats are gray, and in a reforming Legislature all the Representatives of the people should be reformers.

THE Democratic party will vindicate its authority in party organization in the rebuke it administers to Senator Merrimon on the 21st of this month.

THE committees of the two Houses should be promptly constituted after the organization is perfected. None of the irons should be allowed to cool by the strikers at the reform furnace.

MERRIMON'S organ, the Oxford Free Lance, says "it is generally conceded "that Granville county is unanimous "for Gov. Vance ——" Well, we have given the cream of the incisive paragraph.

THERE is business ahead for the reform Legislature. Its organization should indicate the presence of a spirit of wise preparation for the task in hand and appreciation of the importance of the work.

THE reform Legislature which assembles Wednesday should have for Speaker a man who possesses the alert faculty of driving business. The short session and the important legislation on hand make expeditious work necessary.

THE Blaine investigating committee have affidavits from 14 colored men in Massachusetts that they were bulldozed into voting against Butler last November, or at least 11 of them, the other three being discharged from a Lowell mill because they refused to do as their employers desired.

SOME of the Republican papers are beginning to enter protest against allowing a solid South, which will probably not cast a single Republican electoral vote, to name the candidate whom Northern States must elect, if he is elected at all. They propose that the representation in the next National Convention be based upon the number of Republican votes cast at a preceding election, rather than upon the electoral vote of States, under which system Southern Republicans would have very few delegates.

"OF what can Governor Vance or his friends complain if the people of North Carolina, through their Representatives, in the Legislature, express a preference that he should remain in the high and responsible position to which their votes elevated him two years since?"—Merrimon's Free Lance. Nothing, if that preference is "duly expressed." On the other hand, of what can Senator Merrimon or his friends complain if the Democratic party relegate that distinguished renegade to private life for defying and trampling upon its authority in accepting an election at the hands of the Republican party?

MR. MERRIMON'S too zealous friends charge Gov. Vance with doing too much for the negro. Doubtless he has done them more substantial good than Mr. Merrimon, but he has simply discharged a duty. The negro elected Mr. Merrimon to the Senate and defeated Gov. Vance. Vance shows them fair play in the administration of his office, and Merrimon permits his "strikers" (in the suggestive personality of partizan vernacular) to abuse him for it. Merrimon receives favors and returns abuse. Vance receives evil at their hands and returns good. Ingratitude is mean, even toward a negro.

Senatorial Elections.

By an act of Congress, passed in 1866, the Legislature of each State, chosen next preceding the expiration of any Senatorial term, is required to elect a successor on the second Tuesday after its first meeting, each house nominating viva voce, and then convening in joint meeting to compare nominations. In case of agreement, the person named by each of the two houses shall be declared elected, but if they fail to agree, balloting is to begin and to continue from day to day until a choice has been made. In accordance with these provisions, the Senatorial election in this State will be held on the twenty-first of January.

The election of Gov. Vance as the successor of Hon. A. S. Merrimon is a foregone conclusion. It will not be Vance's triumph so much as the triumph of party organization. It will not be Vance's triumph so much as a rebuke to Merrimon. Merrimon accepted an election in 1872 at the hands of the Republican party. He defied the will and authority of the Democratic party "duly expressed."

The Democratic party has bided its time, and now that time has come. It would be false to its traditions and principles to elect Merrimon. The Democratic party is not prepared for this self-abasement and humiliation.

The character given to the combination to defeat Gov. Vance, and thus thwart the will of the people, by the prominence of some of the participators gives us some concern. The strength of the opposition, until its scattered elements crystalize into something definite, defies speculation. That it will not succeed is certain. The triumphant election of Gov. Vance over all combinations and intrigues is as certain as the happening of any political event can be certain.

On the same day elections take place in New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Wisconsin, Colorado, Nevada, Alabama, Florida and Louisiana, returning four and perhaps five Republicans and seven or eight Democrats. The election of Conkling in New York and Vorhees in Indiana seems to be conceded. A spirited contest is progressing in Illinois, and a bolt in the Republican ranks is threatened. Like the negroes in the Republican caucus that nominated Merrimon, the Democrats hold the balance of power, and can elect in the event of a bolt.

A Possible Adjustment of the Senatorial Contest.

Defeated for the United States Senate in 1871 by Senator Ransom, Judge Merrimon wrote a letter, it is charged, to the Democratic members of the General Assembly, resigning the position he held as a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee and dissolving his connection with the Democratic party. He was prompted to this course because it was plain to him, he said, that the Democratic party conferred its honors only on those who were true to the party during the war. The existence of a letter is not denied. Exactly what its contents are is known only to a few, and among that few the distinguished gentleman who writes over the nom de plume of "Smith," and whose surname is Samuel. It is important that the contents of that letter should be given to the public. That it is important is evidenced by the following letter:

SALISBURY, Jan. 3rd.

* * * * * *

If the newspapers can be relied on Judge Merrimon wrote a letter when Gen. Ransom beat him for the Senate in 1871, severing his connection with the Democratic party, because only those who had a war record could expect preferment and honor at the hands of the Democratic party. I would like to know in truth whether any such letter was written. In whose possession is it? Why not show it and vindicate Judge Merrimon if the charge is false? It is important to know if Judge Merrimon adhered to that opinion now. If he does he must be re-elected or the Democratic party will lose him. It seems to me that that letter furnishes a solution to the Senatorial problem.

THE GENUINE
DR. C. McLANE'S
Celebrated American
WORM SPECIFIC OR VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist,
DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper. —:o:—

DR. C. McLANE'S
LIVER PILLS

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

HOME REMEDY
A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY
CURE FOR SCROFULA.
FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS

TRADE MARK. TRADE MARK
(Registered.)

A BRIEF HISTORY:
The following is from the Raleigh News, and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:
"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs Person's father. Mrs. Person lives in Franklinton, or in that section. A child was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs drawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whiskey, and did as directed to the child. Her child now lives well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a South Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some scrofulous affection on the heel. He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to Kittrell Springs. Nothing did him any good. At Kittrell's they told him of Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. — wrote to Mrs Person if she cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the South Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hundred dollars. She sent him directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shortly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most grateful letter he knew how. Bless these old Indians. We would like to have one for a near neighbor."

UNEQUALLED AS A BLOOD PURIFIER.
MRS. JOE PERSON:
The medicine I purchased of you last winter proved of lasting benefit to my son, who was troubled with 27 running sores, some of them quite large, and of a scrofulous nature. In less than three weeks after commencing the use of your remedy, he was perfectly restored, and is to-day quite sound and healthy. As a TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER IT HAS NO EQUAL, hoping that you may be spared for many years of usefulness, I remain, Very respectfully,
Louisburg, N. C., May 22, '78. T. J. STOKES

AS A TONIC AND ALTERATIV
MOORESVILLE, IREDELL CO., N. C.
Being desirous of adding my testimonia to others, concerning the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for Scrofula, I take pleasure in saying that as a tonic and alterative I do not think it has an equal. I have fairly tested it, and after trying Vegetine, Sarsaparilla, Vinegar Bitters, and various other remedies, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it far superior to any TONIC I have ever used. When I commenced using Mrs. Person's Remedy I was very weak, complection sallow, and now I am WELL.
Respectfully your friend,
MRS. H. T. BROWN.

THREE CHILDREN IN THREE WEEKS.
CASTALIA, N. C.
MRS. JOE PERSON:
Dear Madam—Your letter has been received, and on account of being absent from home for a week or two, have not had the opportunity to answer it. I certainly will take great pleasure in doing all that is within my power towards getting you patents for treatment of Scrofula. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for curing my three little children. They took medicine from my family physician for about two years, with scarcely any relief at all. I tried your remedy, and in less than three weeks they were all perfectly cured, and have never shown any sign of breaking out again. I feel very thankful to you. I can safely say that I believe your remedy to be a certain cure for Scrofula. If I can ever be of any service to you in any way, I want you to be sure and call on me. Yours truly,
WM. H. ARRINGTON.

"It will Cure if Fairly Tested."
It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with. After I returned from the Institute I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spiritedness fled before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sore in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sore is healed, to remove the cause of its effects, it should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and I am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, is my advice.
I am, respectfully,
JAMES A. MORRIS.
KITTRELLS, N. C.

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction, while my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood and probably for other diseases.

A CASE OF CANCER.
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 12, 1878.
MRS. JOE PERSON:
Dear Madam—I have been using your Remedy for Scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine seemed to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.
For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart, an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this, rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.
Very truly and Respectfully,
JOHN BUIE, Box 141,

Fine Fruit.

You should on no account fail to call at Royster's and buy the finest oranges ever brought here. They are fresh from the groves in Florida, and are a novelty. See the local advertisement.

Timely Warning.

The Register of Deeds states that it is desirable that merchants and others come forward now and list their purchases for the six months ending Jan. 1st. Attention to this matter will save trouble, time and expense.

The Sewer Pipe Broken.

The tubing of the large sewer pipe from the government building is laid on a sort of embankment at a point near its lower end. This has been washed away by the rains, and in consequence the joints of the pipe have broken. It should receive prompt attention, before more of it is injured. The portion of the excavation at the foot of Fayetteville street has caved in and needs filling again.

A Tall Statement.

Stepping into the Yarboro yesterday evening, a News reporter was greeted by Dr. Blacknall with one of his blandest smiles, and confidentially told that at that moment he had under his roof three men whose combined height was 27 feet 9 inches. This was rather steep, but the reporter took a look for himself and found the statement about true. The height of three gentlemen who stood in the office conversing with each other was nearly 21 feet, and their weight about 680 pounds.

Quite Convenient.

The freight train on the N. C. R. R. came in yesterday morning at 7.50 under the new schedule. By this train, passengers leaving Charlotte, Salem or Richmond the evening before reach Raleigh the next morning to breakfast, or can go on by the mail train on the R. & G. road; or can make close connection at Cary for Fayetteville and points on the R. & A. A. L. road. This change will work great convenience to the travelling public and Capt. Andrews proposes to add to the comfort of passengers by the addition of a first class coach to the train.

Enrolling Clerk.

Among the gentlemen prominent as candidates for office is Mr. A. D. Brooks, of Alamance, who is in the field for the Enrolling Clerkship. As a matter of justice to his county, his claims ought to be favorably considered, for it has never been recognized in the distribution of legislative rewards. But apart for that his character as a high toned, intelligent, capable man, and as a zealous and inflexible party man entitles him to the highest marks of preference.

Death of an Esteemed Lady.

The community were shocked on Sabbath morning to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Jno. B. Burwell. She had been sick for several days, but no serious apprehensions were entertained until Saturday night, when her disease, inflammation of the stomach, assumed an alarming type and baffled all the efforts of physicians. At 6 o'clock on Sunday morning her gentle and lovely spirit left earth for heaven. Truly "death loves a shining mark," and never in this community has he taken away one who was more loved or lovely in all the relations of life. She was the daughter of Dr. John D. Spragins of Charlotte county, Virginia, and was born on the 4th of Nov. 1839, and on the 17th of Dec. 1857, was married to Mr. Jno. B. Burwell.

The funeral services were held on yesterday afternoon from the First Presbyterian church, and were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. Mr. Watkins assisted by Rev. J. M. Atkinson, and Rev. Dr. Pritchard. A very large congregation attended the funeral services and her remains were buried in Oakwood Cemetery.

Supreme Court.

The first Term of this Court under the new regime began yesterday. The session began at 1 o'clock, when the Court was formally opened by Marshal D. A. Wicker. There were present on the bench, Chief Justice W. N. H. Smith and Associate Justice John H. Dillard. Associate Justice Thomas S. Ashe was absent. He is at his home in Wadesboro, sick.

The Court transacted no business except the examination of applicants for license. Of these there are 31. The examination was continued until to-day, when it will be concluded.

The Ice Crop.

Advantage is being taken by all who are so fortunate as to own ice houses to fill them this cold snap. The beautiful pond of Gattis', Jones and Ellis, south of the city, is covered with a sheet of ice averaging in thickness from 2½ to 4 inches. Great numbers of wagons were hauling all day yesterday, and more ice was gathered than has been put away for years. The ice, though beautifully clear, is rough in the large ponds. That in the small ponds of Maj. Tucker is of greater thickness, with a fine surface. Sunday there were a good many skaters, while several were out yesterday.

Sheriffs Settling.

The following Sheriffs settled their taxes with the State Treasurer yesterday:

The Poor in This City.

One of the distributors of the Young Men's Christian Association states that his attention was called to a suffering family not two squares from the Capitol. He went immediately to see them and found a state of destitution that would astound many of the good people here, could they have seen the case for themselves. The household consists of a woman 80 years of age and a younger woman with three children. This mother has been bed-ridden for weeks. They seemed to be in want of every comfort and the only fuel that they had on Friday night to warm their open shed, was the trimmings of the evergreens used in decorating one of the churches on Christmas. The sick and suffering woman was so overcome with cold that she was only kept alive by the faithful rubbing of her aged attendant. This is no fancy sketch but an actual, living fact that any one who desires can see for themselves. Wood was at once provided and they will be cared for in the future. Little do many of the citizens know of the actual suffering just at their doors. Cases of such destitution and helplessness may be found, no doubt, in every ward in the city.

The Magistrates and County Commissioners in Joint Session.

The County Commissioners met yesterday at the Mayor's office. At the same time and place the Magistrates assembled, and a joint session was held, in pursuance of chapter 15, Laws 1876-77. The object of the meeting was to consult in regard to the construction of a bridge over Neuse river, at Milburnie. The number of Magistrates in this county is 73, and of these 37 were present yesterday, barely a quorum. The question of building the bridge was discussed at length, and finally, on motion of Justice R. G. Dunn, they instructed the County Commissioners to carry on the work, leaving its character and price at their discretion.

The question of borrowing money for county purposes was next considered by the joint meeting. Justices Magnin and Best suggested that a quorum was not present, some of the members having gone out. A count was had, when the returns indicated that a quorum was not present, so the financial question was dropped right there.

The Magistrates then adjourned until noon to-day.

The Commissioners took up the regular business. A number of people were relieved from payment of taxes.

Mr. S. C. Chambiee was appointed a constable in Little River Township, in place of Henry Ferrell, deceased.

It was ordered that G. B. Alford, A. P. Cross, and Caswell Page, be appointed a committee to let out the building of a bridge across Middle Creek, on the Avent Ferry road, to report to the Board for approval.

Mr. W. H. Burroughs was appointed an overseer of a section of the Hillsboro road, and Mr. Alexander H. Stephens was appointed overseer of a section of the New Light road. The Board then adjourned until 10 o'clock to-day. They will be in session for several days, as there is a good deal of business to receive their attention. It is said the question of building a new court house and jail will not be acted on this time.

Wake Superior Court.

This court convened at 10 o'clock yesterday. His Honor Augustus S. Seymour presiding.

The following jurors were called and sworn, to serve for the first week of the term: A. B. Emery, W. T. Holloway, J. W. Harris, F. A. Steadman, Green Blake, John Faison, Zack. Mangum, C. H. Rogers, Cicero Williams, Samuel Penny, S. P. Anderson, B. L. Ellis.

The following cases were tried and disposed of:

Finley, Roberts & Co. vs. Dupree & Robards. Motion for restraining order. Motion allowed.

Flemming vs. Freeman. Argued. Judgment reserved.

City of Raleigh vs. Martin and sureties. Called and set for trial as first case to-day.

Rollins vs. Southern Underwriters' Association. Referred to Clerk to state an account.

Elizabeth Allman et als vs. Canada Lowe et als. Referred to Clerk to state an account.

Several cases were called and set for hearing to-day.

Every Moment's Wonderful Work.

Every moment that we live the work of destruction never ceases among what is scientifically called "the tissues" of which our bodies are composed. Every moment, if we are in health, the work of repairing this destructive process goes on with equal pace. When the vital force is great, more vigor is given to the blood and muscular fibre than the ordinary wear and tear of existence uses up. When the vital force fails from any cause, there ensues a wasting away, which, if not arrested, ends in decay and death. Physicians all declare that when these symptoms of decline set in, the only certain remedy is Cod Liver Oil. But their patients, with almost equal unanimity, say that Cod Liver Oil is "So Nasty" they cannot take it. The only resource left is to obtain SCOTT'S EMULSION OF THE OIL with the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA. This is altogether free from disagreeable teaste and order, and is an unequaled tonic, for the nerves and brain.

Speer's Wine for Parties.

This Wine is decidedly the nicest we have ever sen or tasted It is produced from the Oporto grape raised in this country, and possesses the very highest medicinal virtues and certainly, as an article of coverage, it is not, in our judgment, to be surpassed in color, taste, or any of the qualities which constitute a handsome and agreeable wine. It has become the choice wine for evening parties among the 5th Avenue families of New York. Salesroom 31 Warren street, N. Y. Williams & Haywood agents, Raleigh, N. C.
